JACKSONVILLE, ILLINOIS, FRIDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 6, 1920

TWELVE PAGES—THREE CENTS

WITNESSES TELL OF EXPENDITURE OF THOUSANDS

Huge Amounts Handled in Newberry Campaign

BANK OFFICIALS ON STAND

(By Associated Press.)
GRAND RAPIDS, MICH., Feb. 5.—Dollars formed the main topic of the Newberry election testimony today. Beginning with the testimony of Allan K. Moore, a defendant who pleaded "No contest," and continuing right up to adjournment late this afternoon, the testimony related to money expended or received, deposited and checked against and the cash kept in deposit vaults in Detroit or handed out in the Grand Rapids offices from which the western Michigan campaign was directed.

Bank officials from Detroit and this city were on the stand to identify deposit slips, ledger entries and voucher checks and guardians of the master key of a Detroit safety deposit vault told of visits to that institution by certain of the defendants.

At one stage of the proceedings Judge Clarence W. Sessions interrupted a reading of long list of deposits and withdrawals with the remark that the jury "could not possibly carry all those figures in their heads" and with the consent of the defense attorneys he ordered the accounts entered in the record.

The prosecution reckoned to-night that it had shown thus far in the case that more than $200,000 had been handled in the campaign. This was compared with the $2,750 which Judge Sessions has ruled was the limit of campaign expenses allowed by law for the 1918 Senatorial campaign. The defense has indicated it will combat this point on the ground that the statutes refer solely to a candidate's personal contributions or expenditures.

Moore testified that he had received or handled approximately $3,500 in his work as a field agent in the campaign. The testimony of a Grand Rapids bank cashier gave the total deposits in the account of Charles Floyd, in charge of Grand Rapids headquarters, as $11,280. Detroit bankers testified that $5,083.78 was deposited in the account of "Paul H. King, chairman," and that the account of "The Truman H. Newberry Senatorial committee," showed total deposits of $3,785.70. These two accounts were in the Commonwealth Federal Savings bank of Detroit.

In addition it was brought out that Frank W. Blair, president of the Union Trust Company of Detroit and treasurer of the Newberry campaign fund, had handled $78,556 through his own bank. The institutions records showed that all this money had been checked against in favor of the Truman H. Newberry Senatorial committee account in the other bank and Blair's attorney, A. H. Smith, by cross-examination of a preceding witness established that Blair had never been seen to make a deposit personally in the Commonwealth Federal Savings Bank.

While on the subject of the committee account Judge W. H. Eichhorn for the government, had Albert R. Moore of the Commonwealth Bank, read records showing deposits of $5,000 each on August 23 and August 26 of the campaign year. Later with John Stalker, vice president of the Union Trust Company, on the stand he adduced testimony that the latter institution's records indicated transfer of $10,000 to the other account on each of those days, there being four checks of $5,000 each drawn on these dates.

By the same mediums Judge Eichhorn showed a check from the Union Trust company for $3,000 on August 28, but no deposit in the other bank on that day. Stalker testified that he sometimes signed checks for Blair when the latter was absent from the bank or engaged on other business. He said he usually delivered them to "one of the young women from committee headquarters." He also testified that he had no personal knowledge that the checks had been deposited in the commonwealth federal savings bank and that they might have been cashed instead.

SEVERE STORM SWEEPS EASTERN STATES

Property Damage Estimated at Hundreds of Thousands of Dollars Reported Along Atlantic Coast.

(By Associated Press.)
New York, Feb. 5.—Huge waves rolled up by a 50 mile gale were still sweeping the North Atlantic coast tonight while cities and towns along the shore were trying to dig themselves out of the deepest snow drifts of years. Damage done by the sea to resorts and summer homes along the New Jersey and Long Island coasts was estimated at hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Shipping remained at anchor or moved with caution. In the water ways around New York huge ice floes menaced navigation. Cold, snow, ice and high seas have made it almost impossible to transport coal from the tide water reservoir at Perth Amboy to New York and the city faces a fuel famine. The highest tide ever recorded in New York harbor caused floods along the Hudson and Harlem rivers.

Two score big snow plows were at work today on the New York Central between New York and Buffalo. Snow has drifted from 15 to 18 feet deep in some places. Through trains were running hours late and suburban traffic was impeded. Sea-bright, long a target for the waves, suffers more than any of the northern New Jersey coast resorts. It was estimated $250,000 had been done to bulkheads, streets and residences there. At Rockaway beach two summer hotels, thirty bungalows, a large apartment house, bath houses and dozens of small structures were washed into the sea. Several bathing pavilions were swept away at Coney Island and the first floor of the big Shelburne Hotel at Brighton Beach was flooded.

STATE CLOSES CASE IN TRIAL OF N. Y. SOCIALISTS

Prosecution Witness Claims Aliens Dominate Party

ADJOURN UNTIL NEXT WEEK

(By Associated Press.)
ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 5.—P. W. Collins, of Boston, Knights of Columbus worker, was recalled at today's session of the trial of the five suspended assemblymen before the assembly judiciary committee, to support a claim by the prosecution that aliens dominated the socialist party. This claim was the basis of a charge that socialist public officials were controlled by dues-paying aliens through resignations filed with their party organization after they had been nominated. Previously Mayor G. K. Lunn of Schenectady had testified that period to being expelled from the party, he had signed such a resignation.

When adjournment was taken until Tuesday the prosecution had virtually closed its case. Counsel announced that only some "odds and ends" remained to be introduced. Mr. Collins, who had qualified as an expert on labor and socialism was the only witness. In cross examination the defense sought to show he was employed by a "secret society" fighting socialism; that he was prejudiced in favor of trade socialism; and that he lacked knowledge of socialism and the socialist party.

Having made the "conservative" estimate that at least 70 per cent of socialist party members were aliens Mr. Collins said that thru the resignation clause "the socialist party is actually a government within a government, determining how its members shall act in public places." He quoted Morris Hillquit, chief counsel for the defense, as declaring publicly that "ninety nine per cent of all socialists, who know what socialism is, are atheists or agnostics."

Asked by Chairman Martin to differentiate between communists, industrial workers of the world, left wing socialists, radical socialists, and "I guess socialists," Mr. Collins quoted Victor L. Berger as saying there were many roads to socialism but "only one variety of socialism."

"They have their different varieties of socialists for the purpose of getting where they can drive home socialism and make socialists," he continued. "It is the most scientific system of deception in the world."

Condensed Telegraphic News

BERLIN, Feb. 5. (Extradition)—One of the most surprised men in Berlin was Count Von Bernstorff, former ambassador to the United States, who, it is said, is desired by the Allies for his alleged connection with Bolo Pasha. The count seemed to be mildly amused. He declared he was not afraid to face trial. He added that he might put the allies in a quandary if they attempted to prosecute him.

BERLIN, Feb. 5.—The German government disapproves of the attitude of Baron Kurt Von Lersner in his refusal to transmit the list of Germans demanded for extradition to his government. It was declared today by Foreign Minister Muller to M. DeMareilly, the French charge d'affaires here.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—C. R. O'Connor, state federal prohibition agent, announced tonight alcoholic liquors can be used for cooking purposes without violating the law.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—More than 24,000 candidates for military service during the war were rejected on the ground that they were feeble minded, according to a paper written by Dr. Pearce Bailey, chairman of the New York state committee on mental defections, and read at the closing session of the societies for mental hygiene tonight.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The house began work today on the agricultural proportion bill carrying $30,540,034, without agreement as to how much time would be set aside for debate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Every man serving in the war would get $1 for every day of service and bearing interest at 4.34 per cent under a bill introduced today in the House. The issue would be limited to $1,500,000.

UNION OF PROTESTANT CHURCHES PROPOSED

Plans Adopted By Delegates Representing Thirty Denominations in Session in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Feb. 5.—A plan for a union of Protestant churches in America was adopted today by delegates representing approximately thirty denominations after a three days' discussion, and the new movement will be under the guidance of the American council on organic union of the churches of Christ. Dr. W. H. Roberts, stated clerk of the Presbyterian general assembly, was chosen president of the council.

The plan was adopted with one dissenting vote. The plan provides Christian churches having the same faith in Christ shall agree to associate themselves in a body known as "The United Churches of Christ in America" to further a redemptive work for Christ. It holds for "autonomy in purely denominational affairs." It provides an executive body or council and a general council in which each constituent church shall be represented.

The functions of the council, are to harmonize and unify the work of the United Churches, direct such consolidation of missionary activities as well as of particular churches, in over-churches are as by uniting boards of churches of any two or more denominations or otherwise.

NO AGREEMENT ON WAGE CONTROVERSY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Officials of the railroad administration and union leaders, conferring on wage demands of the railroad employees, expressed the hope tonight another day's discussion would bring a crystallization of argument. None would say positively that a settlement would be effected tomorrow, but all were optimistic.

Both sides continued secretive regarding the conference. The railroad men spent most of the day examining schedules of wages now in effect and discussing alleged inequalities.

DEMOCRATS HONOR SEN. CUMMINGS WITH BANQUET

Many Prominent Party Leaders Present at Dinner

SEC. DANIELS IN SPEECH

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Prohibition and the Sims-Daniels controversy were injected tonight into the testimonial dinner given to Senator Cummings, chairman of the Democratic National committee, at which Secretary Daniels was the principal speaker. Prominent democrats from all parts of the country were present.

The prohibition issue was brought up by Governor Edwards of New Jersey, and Smith of New York. Governor Edwards declared a great issue had emerged from the past "the issue of state rights and personal liberty." He asserted this issue must be decided by the people next November.

"If the federal government," he continued, "may subvert the doctrines of state rights and, without a commission or mandate from the people, enter upon our firesides and into our homes with the bureaucratic system of office holders and overbearing, the theory of our constitutional government is destroyed. Under such a system the indestructible union of indestructible states becomes a myth."

"To me, this situation is a political sacrilege and I purpose to carry the fight to San Francisco regardless of what any man or set of men may personally think so as to bring about a popular re-statement of the doctrine of state rights and popular local home rule."

Governor Smith's contribution in a telegram expressing his regret that illness prevented him being present, said: "Do not forget the time honored democratic doctrine that the government is most effective which governs the least. This precept of democratic faith has been grievously and wilfully smothered against when there was imposed upon 100 million free people a restriction to their personal liberty."

Admiral Sims' name was introduced by John M. Riehl, the toastmaster. Secretary Daniels had dealt upon the service performed by the north sea mine barge in ending the German submarine menace and had credited President Wilson with being the first American official to conceive the idea. Mr. Riehl said: "Secretary Daniels spoke of the great barrage laid across the north sea. I have just received a memorandum which shows that the only American officer who opposed that barrage was Admiral Sims."

Mention of the Admiral's name was the signal for considerable hissing and booing. Daniels Speech.

President Wilson was given credit tonight by Secretary Daniels, speaking at the Democratic club dinner to National Chairman Homer S. Cummings for having seen the necessity of shutting German submarines off the seas as the only method of combatting them before naval staffs moved to that end.

"You must shut up the horns in their nest," the President was quoted by Mr. Daniels as having said in a speech early in the war. "For you can never end the submarine peril if you let them out." "The barrage finally built across the North Sea" Mr. Daniels said, "was the American navy's answer to the President's counsel. It was the greatest constructive naval measure of effectiveness in the war. It was a factor in destroying the morale of the German navy and in its deadly destruction of submarines."

WILSON APPROVES SALE OF SHIPS

Shipping Board Head Will Proceed With the Negotiations for the Sale of Vessels.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, Feb. 5.—President Wilson has approved the sale of the thirty former German passenger vessels, for which the shipping board recently received bids, and negotiations for the sale will proceed, Chairman Payne of the board, announced tonight.

To meet objections of the war department which recently protested against the sale of certain liners as needed in its transport reserve, Mr. Payne said a clause would be inserted in the sale contracts specifically keeping the vessels under the American flag and subject to the needs of the army in case of emergency.

None of the bids which the board received for the thirty liners have been either accepted or rejected, the chairman said. In order, however, that the government might obtain fairest prices, it was decided to dispose of the vessels by public sale.

All operators of shipping board vessels and other shipping companies will be invited to come here next week, the chairman stated. No one interested will be permitted to purchase the whole fleet, Mr. Payne said, but if a sufficient price is offered for all vessels allotted to one line, a sale will be made.

Views Confirmed.
Paris, Feb. 5.—France has not abandoned what it considers its right of preference in the purchase of the German ships interned in Brazil, it was learned today. It is understood that negotiations are going on between France and the United States regarding their conflicting viewpoints.

PALMER DECLARES PRICES GOING DOWN

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Attorney General Palmer while here tonight, enroute to Kansas City, Missouri, gave out a statement on the department of justice campaign against the H. C. of L. He declared information to the department indicated profiteering was on the ebb and that high prices were going down.

"Prosecution of dealers seeking unreasonable and unjust profits have been made in 25 states," he said. "Cases in which sentences have been imposed, total 28, and indictments total 683 and arrests number 184."

"What is needed to make the effort more effective is utmost production. Nothing else will permanently restore normal conditions as quickly and effectively. There are also other conditions to be considered. These include world wide conditions, economic causes, which are the aftermath of war. It is they whom cannot be adequately reached in any campaign waged by the government but the campaign has had its effect and will be continued."

FOREIGN MONEY CONTINUES TO SHRINK

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—The English pound fell to $3.25 on Lake Street today, but a block away at the Post Office it sold for $4.87, to purchasers of money orders. A dollar brought almost 12 francs in the financial district, but the Post Office was only giving five francs and fifteen centimes for $1.

The American buying a money order to send abroad "loses," Post Office officials said, "but the foreigner sending money orders here gains, for we pay the full rate for foreign money."

Foreign money orders sold here exceed those from abroad cashed, hence the United States is doing business at a profit in the Chicago office at least.

PLANS TO RESUME DEBATE ON PACT ARE TAKING FORM

Senator Hitchcock Returns to Capital After Absence

GREY LETTER DISCUSSED

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Party leaders' plans to resume the peace treaty debate began taking form today altho it was said there probably would be no decision as to procedure on either side until the treaty is called up Monday.

Senator Hitchcock, acting Democratic leader, returning to Washington after a week's absence, called a party conference for Saturday to consider some points likely to be raised when the treaty comes back to the senate. On the Republican side there were consultations.

Indications that the influence of President Wilson might again be felt in the controversy developed an angle full of possibilities. It became known that he had been in communication indirectly with some Democratic senators and Republicans heard a report that a letter setting forth his views on compromise reservations had been sent to Senator Hitchcock.

The white house also took notice today of the letter of Viscount Grey, former British ambassador to the United States, on reservations. Officials close to the president indicated that they felt the ordinary diplomatic courtesies would have suggested that this government be consulted before such a document was made public. While holding that they did not care to specifically deny them, white house officials said there was foundation for reports that the president knew of the Grey letter before its publication.

Reports that the letter's publication had led to diplomatic representations by this government were denied, at the state department.

Among senators the Grey letter continued a subject of widespread discussion, apparently for the reason that it would play a prominent part in next week's debate.

It is expected on both sides that when the treaty is called up in the senate it will be referred to the foreign relations committee, which will report it without any attempt at reservations. This step, it was explained, will be a technical one to get the treaty out from under the cloture attached to it.

When the committee reports, Senator Lodge, Republican leader, will move adoption of reservations which are yet to be decided on by Republican senators. On the Democratic side, it is said the procedure will not be determined until the plan of the Republican is revealed. Unless indications fail, the treaty debate will begin without any limitation.

Some senators believe that the reported letter from the president to Senator Hitchcock may be laid before the Democratic conference Saturday and may have an important bearing on the trend of the treaty fight. In discussing the Grey letter, Senator Hitchcock revealed that he had talked over the reservations with the British statesman before the latter's departure for home.

"Lord Grey was very careful in his conversations concerning the treaty and all proposed reservations while in this country," the senator stated. "He said the only reservation which concerned his country directly was that which declared that the United States would not be bound by any decision or election in which the colonies could separate votes. This reservation did not affect the other country, but he thought the colonies might strongly object."

Secretary Daniels announces that it will be called "The World's War." It is understood that the rival term, "The Great War," is to be copyrighted for hostilities over the awarding of navy honors.—New York Evening Telegram.

It is no wonder that many men subject to income tax are complaining about the meagreness of the $200 deduction allowed on account of each child under 18 years of age. That figure might have been ample in the before the war period but it is an entirely different matter now.

FREIGHT RATES AND LIVING COSTS.

Now that the much discussed question of the relation of railroad rates to the cost of living is occupying attention, because of possible early returns of the roads, it is interesting to note that the commodity value of freight per ton last year was $119, whereas in 1914 the figures were $56. The increase in freight has been from $2 to $2.80 and even if a further increase is granted, it will in no way account for the big increase in living costs—which, talking in railroad figures, is about $63 per ton more now than a few years ago.

And as has so often been said, this H. C. L. question is a hackneyed one but of burning interest. It is admitted that there is no one single cause and the problem is to beg all the causes together and then find the remedy.

MAKING A GOOD SHOWING.

At the rate the Morgan County farmers are signing up for three years membership in the Farmers club and a like period in the Illinois Agricultural Association, they have come to an understanding of the value of organization. The campaign workers are meeting with courteous and gratifying reception everywhere and Morgan county is expected to make as fine a showing, population considered, as have other corn belt counties.

CENSUS ACCURACY.

In many cities complaints are being made that census enumerators have failed to do their duty efficiently or faithfully—that is, that many people are being omitted. One city in its anxiety to be credited with as large a population as possible had a number of policemen make a canvass in a certain residence district and in a few hours' time compiled a report showing the names of more than 600 persons who claimed that they had never been listed.

It is of course always possible that even if the person has not made a statement to the enumerator, that someone else in his household has done so. The zeal of cities to get the population figures to the top notch is going to help out a good deal in census accuracy.

THE LOWER LEVELS DID NOT COME.

A Sangamon county man who makes a business of appraising lands, recently said in Jacksonville that he expects higher prices for farm lands next summer. He bases this view on the theory that there are a great many men who have believed that there would be a decided receding from the high prices of 1919, and so have held back from purchasing. It is his view that most of these men will now be convinced that the high priced farm lands are here to stay, and that if there is any swing back it will be some years hence, and then probably not of a very decided kind.

This same principle will no doubt apply to building. In fact, that very thing is happening. Many people last year refrained from building or from making repairs in the belief that lower prices for materials will certainly come in 1920. Now, as they consult material dealers they are finding material prices higher than ever.

A Jacksonville electrical contractor who went to St. Louis yesterday, found that he was just in time to take advantage of the discount rate offered a few weeks ago. The firm had decided to withdraw the discount after Feb. 4.

The same thing is true in every line and when a manufacturer or jobber makes a quotation he stipulates that his prices are subject to change without notice and will not be bound unless a positive order is made.

Hens

I have a dozen silly hens I bought to make High Cost look sick; and I would take a powerful lunge to see just where they do the trick. 'Twas in a poultry magazine I read that chickens all ways pay the lay large eggs, and said every mean a handsome profit every day. That publication missed its guess, or tried to put some hunk across; the female roosters I possess are nothing but a total loss. I dreamed when first I took them home, of selling eggs about the town; no more I'd hawk the dippy pome and have my patrons beat me down. A basketful of henfruit fine I'd proudly take upon my arm, and draw eight plunks or maybe nine—such dreams of commerce have their charm. Alas, my hens are golden bricks, they look around on idle legs; their squawking voices answer "Nix," when I beseech them for some eggs. They eat all kinds of greens and grain—what such things cost my ledger tells; I feed egg tonics all in vain, they won't lay eggs, nor even shells. That delegate was surely dumb who wrote that hen would help out fine; we cannot beat the High Cost graft by keeping hens or cows or swine.

OBSERVE DAY OF PRAYER AT I. W. C.

Culmination of Week of Prayer—One of Great Inspiration and Profit—Many Helpful Services Held at College During Week.

The Day of Prayer, which was the culmination of the week of prayer at Illinois Woman's College, was one of great inspiration and profit. The faculty, students, and friends of the college, and the pastors of the Methodist churches of Jacksonville were present at the morning service. Dr. Pletcher gave a vital and heart-searching address on the need of living moral convictions, definite service, and the life of self-sacrifice for Christians. A solo, "Be Strong" was sung with great effect by Miss Lazelle.

The afternoon service, led by Dr. Harker, was one of prayer and praise in which most of the students and Faculty took part. Reports of the class prayer-meetings, which had been held in the morning were given, hymns were sung, and many personal testimonies were made. The members of the Senior Class were especially definite in their decisions of service for the future.

The services of the week, preceding the day of prayer, have been conducted by the pastors of the Methodist churches of the city and Dr. Pletcher, district superintendent. On Monday evening Rev. G. W. Randle spoke on "Christ for the World's Need," on Tuesday morning Rev. D. V. Goudy on "The Value of Christian Testimony," and on Tuesday evening Rev. T. H. Tull on "The Means of Soul Growth." On Wednesday morning President Harker explained the purpose and work of "The Christian Church" and on Wednesday evening Rev. D. V. Goudy spoke on "The Program of Christ's Kingdom."

Friday morning, Rev. G. W. Randle will speak at the chapel service at 10 o'clock and on Saturday morning the address will be made by Rev. J. O. Kirkpatrick.

The Muehlhausens have been practically life long residents of this community and have hosts of friends who will miss them. Mr. Muehlhausen stated Thursday that it would be somewhat of a hardship to break old ties but the move seemed best for many reasons, and he wanted to thank through the columns of the Journal the thousands who had been his patrons in the past, to express his appreciation and to wish them well.

DAY OF PRAYER AT ILLINOIS COLLEGE

The annual Day of Prayer for Colleges was interesting and effectively observed at Illinois College yesterday at a special meeting in the College Chapel. Each of the morning recitation periods was shortened ten minutes this giving time for the inspiring address of Rev. John T. Thomas, of the First Presbyterian Church of Springfield. Dr. Thomas spoke from the text "Learn to do Well". He emphasized the fact that it is a big job—a life long task—to learn to do well, but one fully worth while. His address was one filled with inspiration, deeply serious and yet with many a humorous touch. One had but to watch the young men and women in the audience to know that the message went home in its appeal to their best impulse.

The Rev. Mr. Pontius, the Rev. Mr. Marbach and the Rev. Mr. Landis assisted in the exercises. Dean Hayden made a few introductory remarks, mentioning specially the gradual change that has come about in the celebration of the Day of Prayer for Colleges, how in the earlier years it was a time of great solemnity and heart searching while now there is less solemnity but perhaps more of happiness.

In addition to the usual devotional service in connection with the daily chapel exercises there was special music by the Glee Club, which was much appreciated. The service was one that will have a helpful influence.

REMOVED TREE
A number of choppers and lots of knowledge of woodcraft were required yesterday for the removal of the beechnut tree which has attracted much interest at the DeSilva lunchroom because it protruded thru the roof. Mr. DeSilva was compelled to have the tree removed because of extensive building improvements he has in prospect.

How Is Your Spine?

Often a suffering man or woman will ask a Chiropractor what the spine has to do with the health of the body. "Do you think that Spinal Adjustments can help me?" I've been troubled with constant headaches and stomach sickness for years, but have been unable to find relief. Will Chiropractic help me?" These and other questions are regularly asked. Chiropractic offers real hope, because it gets closest to Nature's way in helping the sick to get well and stay well.

The human body is so constituted that it is unnatural for disease to creep in without cause. The nerve system is designed to give perfect health to all organs and keep them in repair. If through abnormal curvature, jolts, strains, falls or wrenches at some time in life, the movable bones of the spine are displaced, even slightly, they press on these nerves and obstruct the flow of life-energy. Weakness and disease result in the organs that these injured nerves feed. In stomach trouble for instance, the nerves to the stomach are subject to pressure by certain bones of the spine. Thru scientific adjustments and returned it to the vault the officer in charge always went into the rooms.

He said that after some of Turner's visits he had found in the room hands off packages of bills and that he noticed the label of $500 on some of them. Myers in his direct testimony volunteered the information that some times half an hour might elapse between the customer's departure and the examination of the room. In answer to a question by Judge Eichhorn he added "there may have been" others in the room meanwhile.

On cross-examination Martin W. Littleton for the defense had Myers testify that Detroit automobile manufacturers frequently brought clerks to the vault and made up pay rolls in the visitors rooms.

The banking testimony brought several records into the case. These were mostly deposit slips, vault records of visits and transcripts of records from bank books. The defense expedited the speed of this part of the proceedings by conceding the accuracy of the exhibits, except for possible clerical errors, when they had been identified by officials of the banks, who included Clyde L. Rose of Grand Rapids and Frank Wolf and William J. Gray of Detroit.

After the records of the banks as to withdrawals from the various accounts had gone into the record, James O. Murfin for the defense emphasized through cross-examination of government witnesses that the dates of such withdrawals represented the time the checks were cashed by the banks. He stressed the fact that these dates might not be those on which the checks were drawn by the depositors.

Judge Sessions ruled out all testimony showing life of the accounts after November 3, which was election day in 1918.

Mr. Littleton objected steadily to the government testimony on the general grounds advanced yesterday that no conspiracy had been shown to exist and that the acts concerning some of the defendants were therefore not binding on the others. The objection came so often that it became a matter of routine and he had only to offer "the usual objection" to draw Judge Sessions terse "Denied" in reply.

Mr. Littleton also moved to strike out the testimony concerning the Detroit bank accounts because it did not show that Truman H. Newberry had either deposited or checked out or caused to be deposited or checked out any of the funds. This, too, was overruled.

Mr. Cummings declared. When that "became impossible," he added, "it has stood for such reservations as would preserve the spirit of the document and make its re-submission unnecessary."

"If Republican leadership," he continued, "blind to overwhelming necessity for an honorable and speedy peace, drives this issue into the air, the democratic party will party up the gauge of battle. Upon that issue we shall have the support of the moral and spiritual forces of the nation. We shall have the support of the churches. We shall have the support of the business interest. We shall have the support of the laboring men, and we shall have the support of the women."

Alluding to the committee of 171 appointed by Chairman Hays of the Republican National committee, Chairman Cummings said if the committee ever meets, "it will be necessary to call out the militia to preserve order."

He characterized the 66th congress as "the most melancholy failure in legislative history."

"As for holding the Wilson administration to an account for its stewardship," he said, "ninety-two investigations set on foot enormous cost have provided nothing that was worth the expenditure of a dollar."

YOUTH ARRESTED FOR FORGERY

John Buck was arraigned before Justice W. T. Dyer Thursday

LIKE BEING HIT BY RATTLE SNAKE

Says That Every Time
You Cut or Pick at a Corn
You Invite Lockjaw

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn, the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn, root and all lifts right out with the fingers without one particle of pain.

This freezone is a sticky substance which dries the moment it is applied and just loosens the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. He says a quarter of an ounce will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but this is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You are positively warned that cutting or picking at a corn is a suicidal habit.

Self PROTECTION.
Massachusetts is experiencing a wave of reaction against prohibition. The dries, having a lot of idle time on their hands, were understood to be plotting a ban on beans and codfish.

Kornfalfa Hog Feed

is a properly balanced feed. It is made of fine ground corn, ground barley, alfalfa meal, gluten, feed, tankage and molasses. All of these are good clean feeds in themselves. They are combined in just the right proportion. There is knowledge of hog feeding in every sack of Kornfalfa Hog Feed.

By all means buy a self-feeder or make one yourself. It is sensible, practical and efficient. Because we manufacture this feeder in large quantities, we can offer it to you at only $20.00. F. O. B. Kansas City (the actual cost of materials, making and handling.) It is six feet long, holds about six hundred pounds of feed and will take care of from thirty to forty hogs. Self-feeders of the same capacity made and sold for profit will cost you from $35.00 to $50.00.

The old-time method of meal-time feeding makes him ravenously hungry at feeding time. He bolts his food and overeats. His digestion isn't nearly so good as when he eats only a little at a time. When he gets real hungry he stops working for you. The thing he works with is feed and the self-feeder keeps it before him all the time.

Don't fail to use a self-feeder. Either buy one or build one yourself, today. If you want a Kornfalfa Self-Feeder, send us your order.

A Balanced Ration

Assuming you have decided to use a self-feed it, what will you put in it? Corn won't do. It hasn't enough grow stuff. It makes fat mostly. You need a feed that gives stretch to your hogs and at the same time fattens them. You don't need to make him stretch first and put weight on them afterwards. You can do both at the same time with the right kind of feed. You need a balanced ration.

We don't use humus, which is plain earth and has no feeding value, or ground screenings or oat hulls or similar trash in our feed. You wouldn't buy these things in a sack by themselves, and because they have no value to you, we don't use them in making Kornfalfa Hog Feed. The hog cannot utilize them at a profit.

The tremendous success Kornfalfa Hog Feed has made is due to the fact that only good, clean feeds enter into it—the best of everything plus knowledge of hog feeding. Feeders are making hundred pounds of pork with from 336 to 400 pounds of Kornfalfa Hog Feed.

You need absolutely no other feed with Kornfalfa Hog Feed from weaning time to maturity. It is complete within itself. Just dump it into the self-feeder and let the hogs do the rest. Order from us today.

ROTARIANS TO ATTEND INTER-CITY MEETING

Local Rotarians to Go to Springfield Next Tuesday for Important Rotarian Meeting—Gov. Lowden and Other Prominent Men to Speak.

A number of the members of the local Rotary club will go to Springfield next Tuesday to attend the Inter-City meeting of Rotary clubs to be held there morning, afternoon and evening. Gov. Frank O. Lowden will be one of the speakers to appear on the program and Americanism will be the dominant thought.

Albert S. Adams, president of the Springfield Rotary club, will be another prominent speaker, and the program as a whole promises to be one of great value to Rotarians. James O. Craig, of Chicago, governor of the Twelfth District Rotary clubs, will preside at both the morning and the afternoon sessions, and the speakers for the morning and afternoon will be Acting President David Kinley of the University of Illinois, and D. L. Muselman of Quincy. These sessions will be held at the Sangamo club rooms, and luncheon will be served at the Leland Hotel. O. G. Scott will act as toastmaster at this function.

Governor Lowden will make an address at the close of the dinner to be served at the St. Nicholas hotel at 7 o'clock, and he will be followed by President Adams. It is expected that there will be present representatives from twenty seven different Rotary clubs.

The following has been issued by B. H. Harris of Champaign Rotary club, on "How Can Rotary Promote Americanism?"

"By not profiteering in business and citizenship, but giving 100 per cent value and service plus, in both."

"By constantly thinking and talking straight along all-American lines."

"By tolerating no disparaging remarks or references to law to go unchallenged or uncorrected. By upholding in every possible way the dignity of the law, and in always living up to its mandates."

"By keeping in mind that the only excuse for Rotary's and America's existence lies in a persistent personification of our ideal."

"All things whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, do ye even so unto them."

"By seeing that every man in our town shall work where he pleases and when he pleases, under the protection of our town, and that he shall go about his work without being the object of slurs, physical attack, or insult. For America must keep the way open, safe and sure to the last and the least, and Rotarians will serve all along that route."

"By direct individual and club effort as teachers to the alien and un-American among us of—God one flag, one language and one level only and the simple concepts of life, no dualism and self government by which there must be maintained, and perpetuated."

Echoes from the Membership Campaign.

J. W. Graft of Prentice, met Messrs. Hill, Curtis, Cutler, and Ryan at Ashland and completed the canvass in township 16-8 in half a day. The response in that township was very satisfactory. 34 were enrolled for the F. B. and I. A. A.

The second team consisting of Messrs. Shade, Moore, Clauson, Mason and Lyons were met by Director L. J. Stewart at Sinclair, with a full force of drivers. They covered township 16-9 with the exception of one corner. And enrolled a total of 50 for the F. B. and I. A. A. In both of these localities they have a fine start for a community organization when the campaign is over. Friday five men will go to Litterberry while the remaining members of the party will work locally.

WHITE HALL MAN MAKES HIGH SALE RECORD

Col. L. L. Seely Sold Span of Mules for $1,550 at Livestock Show in Kansas—Other White Hall Notes.

White Hall, Feb. 4.—Col. L. L. Seely arrived home Monday from Wichita, Kansas, where on Friday he assisted in the sale ring as auctioneer at the national live stock show, and won a new record in the sale of a span of mules at $1,550. He also sold a horse colt from the Gregory Farm colt from of Percherons at $1,050, one or two other sales also being made by Gregory Farm. The Gregory Farm winnings on their display of Percherons has not been reported in detail, but the White Hall establishment made its usual good showing including a grand championship.

In connection with this event was announced the completion of the organization of the Horse Association of America, with headquarters at Chicago, embracing such organizations as the Wholesale Saddle Association, National Saddle Association, Associated Manufacturers of Saddle Accessories, American Suffolk Horse Association, American Shire Horse Breeders' Association, American Association of Importers and Breeders of Belgian Draft Horses, Percheron Society of America, Chicago Feed Dealers' Association, Chicago Hay Dealers' Association, American Steel & Wire Co., (manufacturers of horse shoes) Phoenix Horseshoe Co., Chicago Master Horseshoers' Association.

During the last year, leaders among horsemen and all allied interests have been working on plans for a national organization devoted to the advancement of the horse interests. Some of the men in New York called a meeting in October, and the Horse Publicity Association grew out of this, but it is local in character. Since then leaders in the saddle industry, and hay, grain and feed trade, horseshoe manufacturers, wagon and carriage builders and horsemen have had a number of meetings in Chicago, out of which has grown this national organization, which has just been incorporated under the laws of Illinois as a corporation not for profit. Its purposes are to aid and encourage the breeding, rearing and use of horses. The time is ripe for the leaders in all allied industries to appreciate that their prosperity is dependent upon the general breeding, rearing and use of horses. The work of the new organization will be led out thru every conceivable avenue of publicity and education, and thru public speakers, who will be provided to address all meetings of consequence. The organization will put the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth before the people of America, and when the truth is known the value of the horse will be appreciated as never before, and his use will be increased both in the city and on the farm. It is understood that this is not a fight against mechanical motive power, which in its proper place is of value, but the use of mechanical power units in lines of work where horses do the work more cheaply is a distinct loss to every one concerned, increases materially the cost of business operation and thereby the cost of living for every family in America. This outline of the purpose of this new national organization is furnished by W. S. Corra, proprietor of Gregory Farm, who has prominent connection with the movement to bring the horse into its own, and Mr. Corra very pertinently remarked that no piece of paper is so thin that it does not have two sides to it.

White Hall Notes.

Mrs. Jacob Meister sold her personal property at public sale Monday, the sale amounting to $8,200, and she will reside with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Linker in Iowa. Her husband died a few months ago. They owned and operated the old Amos farm, north of White Hall.

The big annual mule sale of the Smith Orchard Co., is in progress today.

Mrs. Annette Cheney, who recently arrived from New York to be with her mother, Mrs. Sarah A. Higbee, is suffering with influenza by falling on ice and also has an attack of flu.

Dr. L. O. Frech, local collaborator with the influenza epidemic, reports that there are 149 cases at White Hall and vicinity, and that the local board of health has decided to place all homes wherein the disease appears.

The services at the Presbyterian church next Sunday night will be in observance of Lincoln's birthday, when Rev. Ewert will speak on Lincoln, and quite an elaborate musical program is promised.

The White Hall Farmers' Elevator Co., has purchased the mill, elevators, corn cribs and grounds formerly owned by A. J. Bathett, and have already engaged in business, before the completion of the organization. The services of a miller have been engaged, and it is announced that the long idle milling plant, a splendid piece of property, will again be in operation in a short time. The new company will elect officers in a few days.

Mrs. Beulah Howard returned to Bloomington Monday to resume study in Wesleyan University. She has been on the sick list for several weeks.

Rev. Leo Howard is assisting in Methodist meetings in Roodhouse this week.

OUR REPAIR DEPARTMENT IS GROWING

This is due to two causes. First, the cost of new furniture is much greater. Second, we are doing this class of work at prices that you can really afford. It is really a paying investment.

A set of six dining chairs can be refinished and put in first class order at as cost of as low as $4.00. A new seat can be upholstered in a rocker for $1.50. A well worn rocker can be refinished for as little as $1.25.

A dresser can be refinished for a small sum, say $4.00. These prices are only to indicate the small cost of putting pieces in good order. We are always glad to buy used furniture, but our chance of selling at a profit depends on our ability to make the goods look usable and attractive.

This advertisement is to impress upon you that you can have good looking furniture without buying new at a cost that is insignificant compared with the result you obtain. And further, this is the time of the year to have this work done right and at the lowest price. Don't wait until spring when everyone is busy.

We have the usual stock of bargains. Space does not permit our usual list this week.

LOWDEN HOME IS STILL STANDING

Old Playmates of Governor at Sunrise, Minn., Backing Him to Win Presidency.

Up in Sunrise, Minn., according to the Bloomington Pantagraph a quaint little village of 200 souls, the folks are holding daily political rallies. Sometimes they meet in the "city hall," a one-room structure that tops a rise at a bend of the Sunrise river; sometimes in Andrew Lind's general store. And when the trail permits the Sunrise folks journey to North Branch, a sister town some ten miles distant, and meet jointly with the enthusiasts there.

At the conclusion of each rally State Representative Elias Nordgren, or S. W. Runyan, or Henry Voss, or Silas Boyce, or some other booster will leap to his feet and shout:

"All right boys, three cheers for our next president, our native son, Frank O. Lowden."

Settled Near Sunrise. Back in the days of white topped prairie schooner ox teams and Indian raids, early in 1858, to be exact, Lorenzo Lowden came out of Pennsylvania, swung into a trail leading to the north country and settled in the vicinity of Sunrise. Sunrise at that time was a lively little trading post in the heart of a strip of country replete with adventure.

The Indians in their birch canoes came down the twisting Sunrise river and the St. Croix with berries, deer, fur and fish and bargained for the wares of the white man. When relations became strained, as sometimes happened, a company of soldiers was called to protect the whites.

This was the setting when Lorenzo Lowden moved into the vicinity of the little trading post, and became the village blacksmith, three years before the birth of Frank.

House Still Standing. The old home of the Lowdens, the home where Frank O. Lowden was born nearly sixty years ago, is still standing on its original site two miles out of the village. It has been remodeled from time to time, but the original framework, rafters and uprights remain in position and the size and shape of the house have been altered but little. It is now occupied by Silas F. Boyce. He lives there alone, a widower.

On the evening of January 26, 1861, a farm hand, his face hidden in a shawl, came down the lonely, snow-swept trail from the Lowden home and told the Sunrise folk that "the Lowdens have a boy." There was a "norther" howling down from Medicine Hat. Fences and small buildings were lost beneath drifts of snow and the trail soon became impassable. The medicinal and food supplies which the farm hand started out after remained undelivered for thirty hours, but "the Lowden boy" suffered no ill effects.

Is Lowden Champion. There is a story in Sunrise that Henry Voss and Frank Lowden, who were born only two months apart, and who were precisely the same size, used to settle disputes with their fists most every evening after school. But Henry, a successful farmer of Sunrise, is one of Lowden's most earnest champions.

"Frank used to be a great boy for games," said Voss. "He liked to run, jump and wrestle. He wouldn't let any other kid outdo him. He was particularly fond of water, and, like the rest of us, could hardly wait for the ice to go out of the river in the spring. 'Come on over and take a look at the old swimming hole. Yes, the snow is pretty deep now, and it's hard to imagine going swimming, but there is the place,' he said, pointing to the ice covered stream. 'And, do you see, right over there in the center? Well, that's where Frank Lowden was nearly drowned. Trying to do what the older boys did. Frank mounted the springboard and plunged head first into ten foot of water.'"

ANOTHER NEW NAME FOR LAKE. Editor Journal, Dear sir:

I wish to suggest as a name for our lake either Michigan or Superior. Neither one of these streets can go any farther on account of the lake and these names both belong to great lakes in the United States. My choice would be Superior, for we haven't anything prior to the lake in Jacksonville.

J. E. Devlin, 637 W. Michigan avenue.

THE NEW LAKE. Editor Journal:—

As I note thru your columns so many suitable names for our new lake, I would also like to suggest one. The reason we got this new lake is because we were in need of it, therefore I suggest "Uneda Lake."

COLD WEATHER HAS DESTROYED FLY EGGS.

I have been examining the fall wheat for fly eggs and I find that infected stalks which in the fall had from three to six eggs to the stalk, now have from none to one and two eggs, in the fall seed stage to the stalk. My opinion is that the cold and freezing has destroyed from 7-12 to 2-3 of the eggs laid in the fall.

OBITUARY

Our community has been saddened by the death of Chester E. Buker, which occurred after a few weeks' of unusual suffering.

Chester E., eldest son of Charles and Annie E. Buker was born two and one-half miles west of Prentice, Ill., March 19, 1903, and departed this life at the Passavant hospital in Jacksonville at 12 o'clock noon, Friday, January 30, 1920, being at the time of his death, 16 years, 10 months and 11 days of age. Surviving are his parents and the following sisters and brothers: Mabel, Everette, Cecil, Mildred, Carrol and Alpha, besides a number of other near relatives and many friends. Charles was a boy by his kind and cheerful disposition won and retained the friendship of all who knew him.

He was most promising and industrious, earnest and sincere in all relations of life. The no more than a child, he displayed in his early efforts the true ambition of a man. His home life was very beautiful, always considerate and faithful to his parents and the younger children. The love and attention he gave to home is worthy to be spoken of in reference to one much older. His useful life with the exception of a short time in Kansas was spent in and near the Yatesville community. He obtained an excellent education at the Yatesville school, where he endeavored himself to teachers and playmates, who will forever cherish the memory of so pleasant a child. He was practically in good health until a few weeks ago, when it became necessary, after other treatment, to be taken to a Jacksonville hospital, where he underwent an operation. He rallied for a while and returned home, but it soon became evident that he must again enter the hospital, where everything which skill and loving care could do was done in a last hope of relieving him, but all to no avail, and he quietly and peacefully passed away as above stated.

The parents have lost an obedient and dutiful son, the children a kind and loving brother and the community a highly esteemed boy, who bade fair to become a useful man. But the loss to us all, is an added treasure in Heaven and his eternal gain.

To the memory of Chester: God gave to this world a treasure, A few short years ago; And the depths of a meaning we cannot measure, To why he was called to.

Chester was a bright and promising boy. A better child you could not find. His mother's hope, his father's joy, Always smiling—and so kind.

How sweet to enter the presence of God, In gentleness, purity, truth, The paths of sin he has never trod; For 'tis the innocent days of his youth.

"Asleep in Jesus," for oh how tired, Of suffering day and night; A sweeter rest could not be desired Than to sleep in the "Saviour's" arms.

Incubators

The Klondike
Incubator
A Good One
Because--

It has a double glass top with dead air space between the glass which forms a perfect insulation, which retains the heat. By this arrangement, the entire incubator is visible for inspection, and the cardboard cover can be placed over the glass top to darken the egg chamber, as it is a well known fact that eggs hatch better in the dark.

The Klondike system of hot water heating differs from all others, in that it does not use any hot water boiler on the outside of the machine. The heat from the lamp passes thru a copper tube, the entire length of the incubator. This tube is enclosed in a larger tube, and the space between is filled with water (just like the tube in a steam boiler). This exposes the largest possible amount of water to the heating surface. Our rapid water circulating system insures an even temperature in all parts of the machine.

Eight models are made from 120 to 300 egg capacity. We heat one cubic inch of water for every egg in each size incubator.

BONNET CONCERT THIS EVENING

The people of Jacksonville are to be offered an unusual opportunity in the concert to be given by Joseph Bonnet, this evening, at the Woman's College.

Bonnet ranks among organists as does Caruso among tenors, Galli-Curci among sopranos, Paderewski among pianists, and Heifetz and Kreisler among violinists. He is universally considered to be the first in his class, and that class the highest.

His first tour of this country, last season, aroused not only great enthusiasm but wonder and astonishment at the feats he performed. Saint Enstache, the church in which he plays in Paris, is always crowded when he is to play, and for several generations the finest organists in the world have played in Paris and the Parisians do not throng to hear mediocrity. Monsieur Bonnet will play the same program he gave last week in Chicago, which aroused such enthusiasm.

It is very seldom that the people of a city of this size have a chance to hear an artist of this rank, and it is an opportunity that will be used to advantage by those who are interested in the organ, in music, or in exceptional things in general.

Monsieur Bonnet's program is as follows:

1. (a) Caprice Heroique..... Joseph Bonnet
(b) Berceuse..... Joseph Bonnet
(c) Fugue in C Major..... D. Buxtehude, 1837-1707
Toccata per l'Elevazione..... Frescobaldi, 1583-1643

2. Toccata and Fugue in D Minor..... J. Seb. Bach
(a) Gavotte..... Padre Martini 1706-1784
(b) Sketch in F Minor..... Robert Schumann, [1810-1850]

3. Christmas (new) (On three old English carols)..... Arthur Foote (Dedicated to Joseph Bonnet)
4. Funeral March and Song of the Seraphs..... Alex. Guilmant, 1837-1911
5. Finale (from the First Symphony)..... Louis Vierne

FUNERAL OF WHITE HALL RESIDENT HELD

Mrs. Eunice Dunn Buried Thursday—Influenza Cases Show Decrease in White Hall and Vicinity—News Notes.

White Hall, Feb. 6.—Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Eunice Dunn, for thirty-eight years a resident of White Hall, took place in the Christian church at 2:30 o'clock today, her death having occurred last Monday following an illness covering a period of three years. She was the widow of the late Elder John Dunn, well known as a commercial man and in the councils of the Christian church in his day, and whose death occurred in November 1906. Mr. and Mrs. Dunn came to White Hall from Xenia, Ill., in 1882, and this has since been their home. Four sons survive, as follows: Paul, of Chicago; Philip R., White Hall; Richard, Bakersfield, Calif.; Joe, of Peoria, N. E., a well known commercial man, died on March 31, 1919. Mrs. Dunn's maiden name was Milner, and she was a native of Indiana. Numerous relatives reside in Springfield. She was a member of the Christian church and the Eastern Star, and the funeral services were under the auspices of these organizations. Her age at death was 73 years, 3 months and 20 days. Her death removes one of the grand womanly characters of this community. Her second son, Philip R., formerly with the office of the state fire marshal at Springfield, is at present the sole occupant of the old family homestead on North Main street.

Reports submitted by Dr. L. O. Frech, collaborator with the state medical service, shows that there is a decided decrease in the number of influenza cases. During the entire period of the epidemic there is shown a total of 238 cases of influenza and seven pneumonia, and the number of new cases reported during the 24 hours up to Wednesday evening was 22 influenza and four pneumonia, these being included in the above totals. These reports cover the entire White Hall district, and the last 24-hour report shows a falling off of nearly fifty per cent.

The most critical case is that of Effie Fay Littleton, age 10 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Littleton, who is suffering with double pneumonia. This family lost a boy and a girl during the influenza epidemic a year ago, and the girl now in a dangerous condition is their only child. So far there has not been a death here from these diseases.

The Methodist church announces a program of moving pictures in connection with the services next Sunday night.

Frank Dillman is still at Winchester straightening up the accounts of Charles Grooms at the Hudson garage in that city, and it is conceded that Grooms planned his disappearance in connection with a trip that was intended for the purchase of a consignment of autos, taking along several thousand dollars in money intended for the purchase of automobiles that evidently has never been used for such purpose.

Grooms had charge of the Winchester branch of the Hudson White Hall garage, and the loss is a hard blow to Al Hudson, the proprietor. It is said that Winchester capital has offered to back Hudson in meeting his losses provided he will take personal charge of the Winchester garage.

GLOBE WALKER IS MAKING LONG JOURNEY

Buenos Aires.—Carel Dericks, a Dutch "globe-trotter", who is travelling afoot from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, to San Francisco, U. S. A. as representative of the Handelsblad, of Amsterdam, arrived here from the Brazilian capital which he left on October 20.

From here Dericks crosses over the continent over the Andes mountains to Santiago, Chile, whence he will make his way north through that country and the other west coast countries, Central America, Mexico and thence into California. He hopes to arrive in San Francisco before June 1, completing on foot a journey of about 12,400 miles.

For defense while travelling through wild sections he carries a hollow cane containing a rapier. While journeying through Santa Catarina province in Brazil, he was threatened by Botokude Indians but their hostility was changed to curiosity, he said, by the sudden transformation of his stick into a sword.

Farmers!

SCIENTIFIC FARMING METHODS WITHOUT STRONG ORGANIZATION WILL NEVER SOLVE OUR FARM PROBLEMS.

Do you know that our business or farming

- is the greatest in the Nation
- that farming is the foundation stone of progressive civilization.
- that the value of farms and farm production is greater than the capital of manufacturing and its products by more than $13,256,000,000.

Our business is the largest most vital of all. Three times a day all people sit down to our table. The welfare of the farm business is a big part of the Nation's problem.

Scientific agriculture has increased production, but it has not put agriculture on a permanent, paying, satisfactory basis. We must expand, get out over our fences and take a hand in the affairs of the State and Nation which affect our business. Agriculture must be represented in a strong, forceful, intelligent way.

Of all the businesses from window washers to the great steel interests, farming is the one that is not organized.

Real farmers are the only people who can or will represent agriculture. The Farm Bureaus and the Illinois Agricultural Association are made up of men who are every day experiencing the problems of farming, men who see and know the necessity of farmers organizing.

"Give Me a Quart of Oil"

A Careless Request That Invites Costly Penalties

You drive up to a garage. The garage man comes out. "Give me a quart of oil," you say. The "quart of oil" is poured into the reservoir. You drive on. You think you have amply protected your engine. But have you?

One of the surest ways to invite friction-drag, engine trouble and excessive gasoline consumption, is to say, "GIVE ME A QUART OF OIL."

"Give me a quart of oil" invites Power Loss.
"Give me a quart of oil" increases Gasoline Bills.
"Give me a quart of oil" invites Carbon Deposit.
"Give me a quart of oil" invites Noise.
"Give me a quart of oil" reduces Second-Hand Value.
"Give me a quart of oil" invites Wear of Bearings.

WRITES OF CHAOTIC CONDITIONS IN CHINA

Chinese Graduate of U. of I.
Writes Interesting Letter to Local Resident Declares
Chinese Have Warm Feeling for Americans.

The following letter, which has just been received by a Jacksonville resident, will doubtless be read with interest by many. It was written by T. K. Lin, Chinese, who graduated from the University of Illinois with the class of 1917. During the Chinese revolution he and his brother were secretaries to Dr. Sun Yat Sen, the brother later being tortured and shot by Yuan Shi Kai because he would not reveal secrets of Dr. Sen's party which he was supposed to possess. Lin spent the better part of six years at the University of Illinois, earning his way after the new government had confiscated his and his brother's property.

The letter reads as follows:
The Canadian-Pacific Ocean Services, Limited,
H. R. S. "Empress of Russia,"
Dec. 25, 1919.

My Dear Friend:
Is it not strange that I should be writing to you on this day, Dec. 25, 1919, and while on the ocean? As everything else the coincidence can be explained.

I am on the move again, having left Hongkong—the hated British Colony—this noon for Shanghai and then for Hankow on the Great Yangtze. I finally decided to have our bank transfer be back to the North. This is my reason for my present move. However, I can't even now tell you how long I shall stay in Hankow for I am planning to go elsewhere if my plan succeeds. Yet it may fail.

But enough of myself. Wise men advise us not to speak too much of one's self, you know.

China is still in a somewhat chaotic state. I hope with all my soul that the Almighty God will send some man capable of extricating the country from the difficult situation in which she finds herself. Internally, the civil war, (a struggle between the north and south or the conservatives and radicals) is temporarily at an end but reunion still fails to be effected. Peace conferences one after another have been held in Shanghai but no beneficial result has as yet been obtained. Meanwhile the militarists continue to be masters of the land.

Externally we have all kinds of questions from Mongolia on the Russian border on the north down to Tibet on the south and on the east the ever troublesome Japs. The Shantung settlement of which you yourself must have heard a great deal has taken a very serious turn, or has developed into such a problem as can hardly be settled by peaceful means. The officials of the land seemed to be powerless against the settlement and the other classes of the people were so amazed that they knew not what to do. At last the students became martyrs and many have become martyrs for the country. They mobbed and beat the pro-Jap officials in their own houses in Peking and forced some of them to retire from their malicious activities. They made demands on the Peking government in such terms that the people of the west never dreamed any student body could have made. They organized themselves into unions and sent out squads to preach the doctrine of hatred against the Japs and the pro-Japs. The movement spread like wildfire and soon we found preaching in every town students banded together effecting a national union to save the country. One of the means to accomplish their end is to boycott the Japs and Japanese goods which they name "inferior articles." As a result the Japs got wild and used pressure on the Peking government to suppress the movement. Clashes with the Jap people resulted. It was only a month ago in Foo Chow City the Japs and our students had a bad struggle resulting in many dead and wounded on the part of the students. Two American Y. M. C. A. men were attacked by the Japs because the former attempted to prevent the Japs from forcing their way into the Y. M. C. A. Building to get at the students. Whereat the local government tried to stop the strike by closing schools. In Canton City and elsewhere they sent out squads to examine goods that are being imported. If any low grade goods or "inferior articles" are found they are confiscated to be burned so that of late a good many low grade goods are being burned here and there. Students clashed with the police, were arrested and jailed, but always to be freed at last to resume their sworn duty.

By controlling Shantung and other border provinces, the Japs intend to shut off our outlet to the sea—in other words to put us at the mercy of Jap's navy. Those who have helped cede Shantung to Japan failed entirely to consider the position and sovereignty of China. I fear the next big war will be in the East and then what the men at the peace table want to Paris—Peace—Universal peace—will be no Peace, but war and war if not universal war. Europe may enjoy peace and prosperity in the future but we can see nothing but clouds above our heads and hear only storms and thunders. Indeed this is such a cruel and wicked world.

Let us hear from you before long. By the way, the people here have been very much impressed by the attitude or stand the U. S. Senate took in regard to reservation. It seems our only hope regarding Shantung lies not in our souls but in Washington. I would like the people of America to know how the Chinese sincerely feel toward the good Americans.

Best regards to all my friends. Yours as every cordially,
T. K. LIN.

Child Birth

(BULLETIN NO. 9)

Herewith is a picture of James Le Roy Cunningham, taken at eight months of age—actual weight twenty-five pounds.

This boy is representative of the kids delivered in the Obstetrical Department of the New Home Sanitarium. He was born the New Way—Natural Way.

His mother was relieved of the pains—which make child birth a dreaded burden—when it is in reality the most sublime act of human endeavor.

This mother was able to leave the bed within six to twelve hours—able to be up and around the next day.

For the past five years at the Sanitarium this method has been used and by it, a great number of women have been delivered and not one has ever experienced the least unpleasant after effects. Yet sixty-two per cent of them were lacerated (torn) more or less, forty-four per cent were normal, two per cent high forceps, eighteen per cent low forceps. These last two conditions due to primipara (first birth). Yet by immediate surgical repairs—these mothers made complete and rapid recoveries. I should not say recoveries because they were not sick. You say "That is awful to get them up so soon"—Yes, to anyone who does not know—or has lost faith in nature it seems awful. Remember only habit and custom control the man who never thinks.

Obstetrics is one of the most ancient professions. When Cain was born there was no physician to make Eve lie in bed and possibly contract infection, get weak and, thru inactivity, cause the cells and organs to become clogged with body waste, etc. The Bible and Greek writers tell of the Obstetric Chair—and it is used by many races of the far east today. We—yes, I mean "we" who are slaves to habit and custom—would resolve never to have another child under such conditions. What would you say had you lived during the age when the mothers of Sparta—to test the worthiness of their babies to live—would throw them into the river Styx and if the child sank the mother would thank the gods for not allowing such unworthy offspring to live—but if it survived she thanked them for such a worthy child. It is needless to say that the Greek population did not grow very rapidly, yet to mention this practice to any Greek patriot will call forth the story of how 300 selected Greek soldiers defied and held back Xerxes and his 1,000,000 Persian soldiers for three days at Thermopyli. Then, too, only a few years ago, we could see the old granny sitting in the corner smoking her pipe, red rag around the head, the expectant mother raging with pain, pulling the ropes, etc., waiting for Nature to take her course. No antiseptics, no repairs of lacerations, no resetting of womb, no care of the baby's eyes, and yet you who throw up your hands in holy horror, during those times accepted that kind of service as all right. (Habit and custom).

Thanks to evolutionary development of our present day civilization—custom and habit are being side tracked for progress and efficiency. The whole medical profession, just a few years ago, was startled and amazed at the advancement made in mid-wifery by V. Steinbushel in 1902 and Kronig and his assistants in 1907 in the development of the "Twilight Sleep" method of delivery.

Our modification of the Twilight Sleep, as practiced at The New Home Sanitarium, deserves your most careful consideration. Seventy-five per cent of the pains, aches and diseases of the mothers past thirty are due to errors, and ignorance practiced during child birth and the lying in period.

No mother—no matter how convenient and fine your home may be—treats herself or child with safety and justice who fails to go to a hospital for confinement. There is no exception. We gladly give to the profession or expectant mothers any information on this subject that we can. It will pay you to inspect our Obstetrical Department.
